Stafford Memorial Park

Family Owned and Operated Since 2003

We are a full service small independent cemetery and welcome you into our family. In the last few years we have begun to utilize technology (email) to more thoroughly assist you. Since these are eternal decisions that involve all family members, email allows you time to read through all of our materials and become familiar with the burial process. That understanding lends itself to questions that sometimes are immediate but most often organically come to mind over time. Utilizing email allows for that process in make these lasting decisions. Once you have finalized those decisions we will be happy to make an appointment to move forward with your burial purchases. Again we welcome you into our family.
